Hello CSBC!

Can you believe that one year ago we started streaming our services online? A lot of things have changed in a year. It's easy to get on the other side of 2020 and just want to move on and never acknowledge it again. I get that. Indulge me for a minute though and find just one thing to celebrate this year. Something tells me if you can find one thing to celebrate, you might could find two. And maybe even some more things to celebrate after that.

1. I celebrate the people that create College Street. Within CSBC are some of the best people I know. They've helped me and so many others find hope this year. We found new ways to do ministry together.
2. I celebrate that because of finding new ways to do ministry and maintaining relationships, our children and youth have come back to us again and they've brought new friends! Last Wednesday, we had over 20 children and 20 youth! YAY
3. I celebrate the people that I work with every week to minister to our children and youth. I celebrate what they did before, during and after our time of quarantine.
4. I celebrate the people that work with our media team and that I get to work with them. I'm thankful for the technology that was provided for us and for the opportunity to learn how to use it.
5. I'm thankful that you can't cancel Easter. The Pharisees tried to cancel Easter. COVID tried to cancel Easter. I celebrate that HE IS RISEN!
6. I'm celebrating the people that are helping to get our nursery renovated and ready for reopening. We plan to reopen Easter Sunday! If you can help next week with floor installation, painting or installing a sink, please let me know.

I can't wait to celebrate at Vacation Bible School this summer! We need some classroom assistants and a teacher for our Preschool and Kindergarten class. If you're available June 13-17 and want to help out, please let me know. We are limiting registration and keeping our COVID protocols in place.

Celebrate CSBC! HE IS RISEN!

~Lauren
