Music Ministry Notes

Rev. Tim Moon, Minister of Music

Ah False Fall has come and gone, and I'm hiding in my office away from the triple digit "feels like" temps outside, while making sure I polish up my knowledge of this year's Christmas music. Hope is Born kicked off well, and thankfully was received with excitement. It's not too late to join us for this year's program. Currently we will rehearse at the beginning of Adult Choir on Wednesday's at 7:30 in the choir room.

Parents! We need your children as well...there are opportunities for children's choir and several solos. We rehearse at 6:30 pm on Wednesday.

Youth are encouraged to attend the 7:30 rehearsal for the first 15 minutes of Adult Choir. Solo opportunities for you as well. I will publish the orchestra rehearsal soon...typically we rehearse on Sunday afternoon.

Lots of upcoming opportunities to worship together musically, as well as lead worship with music between now and Christmas

-September 19 – Singing Churchmen concert

6:45 – 8:30 something for everyone...don't miss what promises to be a "standing room only" evening of worship featuring our own Ray Conway, and Matt Freeman directing.

-Oct 13-15 – Fall Revival We will provide Sunday night special music, as well as lead worship nightly

-Oct 27 – Associational Annual Meeting

We will provide special music & lead worship

Jeremy's Korner

Rev. Jeremy Beauford, Pastor

Proverbs 3:5-6 "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

Church family, I memorized this verse as a child in RA class at First Baptist Church in Abbeville, SC. Then, it was one verse of many that our class learned and memorized together. The Lord has reminded me of this verse time and time again through out my life. Throughout my life, I have worried and stressed over certain decisions like where am I going to school after I graduate high school. I can't forget the many physical setbacks I faced and the many decisions that accompanied each scenario. Also, there was that big decision about marrying Holly. Yeah, that was a big decision, and the Lord showed me grace upon grace in given me the treasure that is Holly Beauford. I had to convince her counsel to avoid telling her to run from the proposal. Ok, Ok, I am kidding! With each life event, he was there whispering trust me.

I have discovered that life has a way of providing unpredictable situations that are beyond our ability to know the outcome. It would be in these moments that the Lord would take me back to FBC Abbeville, in a little room filled with energetic little boys, and one determined RA leader saying, let's all say it together "trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths." Have you been there lately?

As I shepherd the wonderful faith-filled believers at College Street, the Lord whispered that verse over my heart many times. I was reminded this week of that admonition to trust in the Lord. I pray as we move forward engaging, equipping, and empowering people to fulfill their God given purpose in life that we will be a people who trust in the Lord. Let's all look to him, for He alone can be trusted!

THANK YOU NOTES

Dear Church Family,

We thank you for every prayer, encouraging word, act of kindness and expression of sympathy during Mom's decline and her transition to her new home. Each of these were a testimony to such a caring and loving church.

The Polly McManamay Family

Dear Church Family,

We want to express our gratitude for the prayers, cards, visit and calls during my hospitalization and surgery. Mary and I are most grateful to have a loving and praying church family. God is good all the time! We are humbly blessed.

Paul & Mary Tichenor

Dear College Street Baptist Church,

On behalf of the Young At Heart Senior Group at Fairview Baptist Church in Greer, SC we want to thank College Street Baptist Church for coming to our rescue.

On July 31st, our group was returning to Greer after having toured the Upcountry Museum and The Museum of The Cherokee in SC when our church bus broke down. Very soon afterwards, one of your members, Jeff Blackwell stopped to offer his assistance. After evaluation it appeared that our bus wasn't going to start. So Jeff offered your church bus which happened to be large enough to accommodate all of our passengers. Another one of your members, Gary Barker drove us in your bus all the way to Greer while Jeff stayed with our bus driver and our bus until a tow could come for the bus.

We want to express our appreciation and gratitude to these two men as well as your church for our assistance. We all feel it was a "GOD thing" that Jeff just happened to be on his way home moments after our bus stalled and helped us. He rendered valuable assistance and support to our bus driver.

Please accept this donation from our Young At Heart to your bus fund in honor of these two wonderful members of your church, Jeff Blackwell and Gary Barker.

With Sincere Gratitude,
Camellia Ploof,
President of Young At Heart Group
